J. W. BOWEN, Editor and Publisher.

MCARTHUR, OHIO, NOVEMBER 5, 1873.

The Democracy rejoiceth and are exceedingly happy.

It will do the Grant Administration editors good to live in Democratic Ohio for the next two years.

WILLIAM BEBB, ex-Governor of Ohio, died at Rockford, Illinois, October 23, in the seventy-first year of his age.

REPUBLICANS refused to vote at the late election because they were disgusted with their party and deserted its defeat. It was not so with Democrats. They did not vote because they thought there was no chance for success.

The indications everywhere are that a great political revolution is taking place, and that the Republican party is fast losing its prestige and power. All the Democracy will have to do is to stand firm to their principles and they will soon gain an ascendancy.

ALLEN is elected and we are happy. The Democracy is again in fighting trim, and that makes us happy too. True Democracy will win—departures never—and that makes us more happy. Let there be no overtures to the enemy in our future campaigns, and we will always be happy.

The first day of the silver resumption experiment by the Treasury department ended with $250 of silver paid out, being $5 each on 50 payments. The Treasury stood the demand like a rock. As the Government has $500,000 in silver, it will take 2,000 days, or nearly six years, at this rate for the supply to give out.

Those Republicans who stayed away from the election this fall, did so because they could not endure the outrageous GRANT corruption any longer. They wanted a change; the change has been made; it is a very good change; it is a change that will benefit the people.

Official Vote for Judge.

The following is the official vote for Common Pleas Judge of the several counties composing the 7th Sub-division of the 2nd Judicial District:

Thomas Porter	Porter	Cherington, DuHadway,
Scioto	2,586	2,254
Lawrence	2,712	1,967
Jackson	1,804	1,684
Pike	265	1,587
Vinton	1,059	1,633
	8,476	9,125
	8,476	8,476

DuHadway's majority..... 619

Lawrence and Scioto counties gave Mr. CHERINGTON 5,328 votes; and Vinton, Jackson and Pike gave him 3,148 votes; majority for the River Territory, 2,280. Lawrence and Scioto gave Mr. DuHADWAY 4,221 votes; and Vinton, Jackson and Pike gave him 4,904 votes; majority for the Inland Territory, 683. In Lawrence and Scioto, Mr. CHERINGTON received 424 more votes than Mr. DuHADWAY received in Vinton, Jackson and Pike; and in Lawrence and Scioto Mr. CHERINGTON has a majority of 1,107 over Mr. DuHADWAY in the same counties.

It will be seen that the rich River Territory out voted the poor Inland Territory in every way excepting one; and on this one way the poor Indiana won the Judge. The Indiana of the north being too poor to visit the Navigators of the south forty or fifty times each year to consult a Judge, resolved to elect a Judge in their own territory; all of which they did to the best of their ability.

County Seat War in Indiana.

RICHMOND, Ind., October 29, 1873. A mob of disguised men, sixty strong, attacked a party of seven deputy sheriffs guarding the jail at Centreville, which the workmen are tearing down to remove here to the new county seat. After firing one hundred shots from small arms without serious results, a six-pound cannon loaded with spikes, nails and scrap iron were fired at the doors which, being demolished, the mob occupied the sheriff's residence, which forms part of the jail building. After a parley, the deputies surrendered conditionally. Thirty men occupy the jail to-night, when another attack by a large party with cannon, from Cambridge City, is expected. Richmond is threatened with an attack for the purpose of taking the county records to Centreville. One hundred armed men, with the captured cannon from Centreville, are now awaiting the sheriff's orders.

Appointments by the governor.

The appointments at the disposal of the Governor are as follows:

Governor's Private Secretary, Executive Clerk in Governor's Office, Railroad Commissioner, Clerk to Railroad Commissioner, State Librarian, Superintendent of the State Reform Farm, Adjutant General of the State, Assistant Adjutant General, Superintendent of Insurance, Supervisor of Printing and Binding, Gas Commissioner, Quartermaster General, Surgeon General, two Aides-de-Camp; in all, 16 officers.

The appointment of assistants in the Benevolent Institutes, guards at the Penitentiary, and the like, are made by the Board of Trustees of those institutes now, but it is altogether likely that this winter the whole system will be reorganized so that the Superintendents of them shall be appointed by the Governor, and shall make the choice of their own subordinates.

WHEN President Grant, in his Thanksgiving Proclamation, wrote about "Frugal industry regaining its merited recognition and its merited rewards," did Jay Cooke's failure, with the loss and misery it entails on the "industry" of the country, recur to his mind? or was he only thinking of roast turkeys, cigars, and wines? The mechanics and laboring men throughout the country, who have been thrown out of employment by the money panic, will be likely to ask questions of like nature.

We can recollect when members of Congress received only six dollars per day. At that rate of compensation it could command the services of such men as Henry Clay, Calhoun, John Quincy Adams, and others of like character and ability. From six dollars per day Congressional compensation has progressed until now it is seven thousand five hundred dollars per annum. And, as the pay has increased, the intellectual and moral tone has gone the other way.—*Alta California.*THE CHILlicothe Gazette says: "Governor Allen has a colored man who does his marketing and visits daily the city for the purpose of purchasing the eatables for the new Governor's table. This man seems somewhat elated at the success of his employer, and feels that the plain title "Major" is not quite grand enough, and so, on entering the meat market last Saturday, he pompously exclaimed, 'The Government wants a roast of beef!'

AN INDIANA RADICAL who applied to the Grant Administration for the position of Minister to Russia, closed his letter by saying: "If you can't give me that, I would have no objection of being appointed a hostler in some warm stable, where I could boss two or three boys, as I love the horse and have considerable executive ability."

In a close vote Allen always wins. He was elected to Congress by one vote over his father-in-law, Governor McArthur, and afterward was elevated to the Senate by the same majority in the Legislature. He is the winning man whenever there is a close vote between him and his opponent.

The Latest Failure.

One of the heaviest of the recent series of failures is that of E. F. NOYES & CO., of Ohio. They failed for about 700 or 800 votes, and it is stated are not likely to "resume" very soon.—Bellefontaine Examiner.

260 men have been discharged by the Bay State Iron Works, Massachusetts, and so all over the country. What are the prospects for these poor people the coming winter. All the result of the Republican financial system.

WILLIAM ALLEN, the Governor elect of this State will be inaugurated immediately after the assembling of the Legislature in January. Prepare for a pilgrimage to the Capitol.

THE MINNESOTA law compelling saloon keepers to pay ten dollars annually to the support of the State Inebriate Asylum has yielded over twelve thousand dollars this year.

The Country Gentleman.

Volume for 1874.

THE CULTIVATOR & COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, for the past forty years, has ranked, both in this country and abroad, as the STANDARD PUBLICATION OF THE COUNTRY. The Editors and Proprietors, in addition to their own personal labors, are regularly assisted by a corps of Agricultural Writers, and Regular Contributors, among whom are included many leading Agriculturalists, in all parts of the Country, East and West—and a few Foreign Contributors. The Agricultural Writers, directly in the ranks of the best Farmers and Horticulturists of nearly every country in the world, afford a valuable source of solace to a corps of practical men, this journal is intended to possess exceptional value, and, in addition, to the general information among all classes interested in the Products and Services of the land—the those who Cultivate and those who Consume—the Buyer and Seller, the Farmer and the Druggist, the Crop-Breeders of improved animals and their customers—Manufacturers of improved articles, and those who buy them—Nurserymen and fruit growers, and, especially, to supply fuller and better data as to the various products and resources of each extensive section, as the most right method of the most important of all questions—What to Buy and When to Buy.
